

PAINTERS & SCULPTORS

Dear Members & Friends of Tryon Painters & Sculptors:

May the Holidays bring you joy, health & creativity! We are so grateful to all of you for making 2009 such a vibrant year.

To those who worked so hard with your individual shows, thank you. The SCULPTURAMA 2009 Show was a success on many different levels. The various workshops and classes were fun and fabulous. A big thank you to instructors! It is to our dedicated members, volunteers and supporters who continue to provide creative energy to our community that our mission has been fulfilled for this year.

Renewals are being accepted for 2010. Membership fees are $40 for individuals through 1/31/2010 & $50 for family members or people living within the same household. After 1/31/2010 there will be an increase of $5 for each membership. For your name to appear in our membership book we must receive your check in January.

Enter our Picasso Contest by bringing in your paintings, drawings, sculptures, etc. inspired by Picasso's Blue Period and Cubist Period Fri. and Sat. 1/8 & 1/9/2010 to the Tryon Fine Arts Center (TFAC) lobby at 34 Melrose Ave., Tryon, NC 28782.

For questions on Membership or the upcoming arts contest, call Alice Bentivegna at 828-894-0390.

Watch for the dates when you can purchase your tickets for Steve Martin's play, "PICASSO AT LAPIN AGILE" which will be shown at TFAC on January 29, 30 & 31, 2010.

~Mike McCarthy, Aviva Kahn, Karen Johnston, Jeanne Parker, Alice Bentivegna, Dick Neff, Karen Dow, Karen Paquette, Susie Welsh, Jeanette Comer, Claire Carey.~

Explore the Arts Series

Don't forget TFAC's "Explore the Arts" on Thursday, Jan. 21, 2010. 6:30-8:30 pm when we "Explore Picasso's World." Moderator is Pat Cole-Ferullo. She will present an anecdotal look at Picasso, his life, idiosyncrasies, and contributions to the twentieth century world of art. Pat also has surprises in store. Don't miss it!

*Jean Pettigrew, Chairman, Explore the Arts Series.
Admission at door is $7.00 adults, $5.00 Students*

Visit www.tryonpaintersandsculptors.com for the 2010 Mahler Room Schedule and Gallery One Schedule

