“Painting in Watercolor – a Relaxed Approach” with Pat Morgan

August 25-September 15, 2022

Thursdays 9:30 am – 12:30

Level: Experienced beginning to advanced

In this 4 week class Pat will demonstrate a variety of watercolor techniques as well as discuss design in painting. Pat’s own painting style is reflected in her approach to teaching - a loose style encouraging students to make progress at their own speed. As well as a variety of painting techniques, she covers the basics of the materials, color mixing, and design principles applied to watercolor.

You will be using a variety of subject matter, working from still life and photos. You may bring your own watercolor supplies: see the materials list for her class.

About Pat Morgan – www.patmorganart.com

We are happy to introduce watercolorist Pat Morgan to our program. Pat now lives in WNC and shares with us her insights and experience with this magic medium- watercolor. Pat’s beginning subjects were landscapes and flowers; more recently she concentrates on figurative studies. Pat’s style is loose and sensitive, creating luminous watercolors that capture the essence of her subjects. She has received several local and regional awards and is a signature member of the North- east Watercolor Society. She was featured in NC’s “Laurel” April 2020. Pat’s passion for watercolor is met by her passion for teaching; her experience includes the Wallkill River School in NY and for the Art League of Henderson County.

Pat requires Covid vaccinations- please!

“Someday I’ll Take Art: Continuing the Journey Susan Ruby- instructor

Wednesdays, 12:00 pm – 3:00pm
August 31-October 5, 2022

This six session class is a continuation of the popular introductory class offered in the past several years in beginning drawing and painting with water based mediums. For beginner students, the class will be an individual review of the elements of drawing, composition, color, materials, and mediums. The focus of this class, however, will be on the creation of archival drawings and paintings from initial concept formulation to completion of a finished piece of art. Participants will be encouraged to develop an approach to composition and color palette selection based on solid artistic principles, making use of the whole surface of their work. The class will also encourage the development of individual style, and provide considerable leeway in the selection of subject matter. More experienced participants will have the opportunity to develop and execute their ideas within a team setting, drawing and painting in plein air, from references and from life, incorporating mixed media where appropriate. Weather permitting; at least two of the sessions will be conducted outside making use of the Tryon streetscape and environs.

Fundamental to this approach is the recognition that while there is no one simple recipe for creating a beautiful painting, there are concepts and aesthetic parameters we all need to understand. Good art can be a product of many approaches, but it is not just an accident. There are tried and true pathways that the artist follows in the successful creation, execution and critique of his or her work.

Hopefully following these sessions, when the question arises- “what should I paint next?” You will be confident in your approach and have more new ideas than you have time to execute them.
